The service was in charge of Presiding Elder Lewis and the introductory parts were taken by Revs. Dr. S. G. Barnes, A. H. Gage and A. F. Welch. A strong sermon was preached by Rev. George W. C. Hill upon "The Puritan Spirit of the Modern Day" and at the close the audience sang the new national hymn written by Prof. Bates of Wellesley College. A substantial collection was taken for Sunset Home.

Good Government.

A mass meeting in the interests of good government has been called in Music Hall, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock to arouse public sentiment for a clean village in 1908. A general invitation is extended to every voter in the village to attend this meeting and there will be ample chance for anyone to participate in the proceedings. This is a matter that vitally interests everyone in this village and the meeting ought to be well attended and productive of much good.

Caledonia County Court.

The December term of the Caledonia county court convened yesterday morning with Hon. E. L. Waterman of Brattleboro presiding for the first time in this court. The assistant judges are Hon. George T. Bastman of Walden and Hon. J. Frank Ruggles of Burke, while the court stenographer is Miss Mary J. Nelson. Prayer was offered by Rev. George W. C. Hill and the morning was spent in calling the docket. The court suggested that a number of cases had been on the docket for a good many years and hoped the attorneys would do all that was possible in clearing the docket. In the afternoon the petit jurors were sworn and instructed by the court. The first case to be tried was that of T. T. Daniell v. Chas. R. Davis, apt. This is a Hardwick case which was appealed from the justice court and involves an action of rent. Bullard & Morse are the attorneys for the plaintiff and David E. Porter represents the defendant.

When court opened in the morning the county bar was well represented, those from out of town being N. A. Norton and J. T. Gleason of Lyndonville, M. G. Morse of Hardwick. The Orleans county bar was represented by F. W. Baldwin, Frank D. Thompson, and W. W. Rieder, all of Barton, and John Young of Newport.

Announcement was made to the attorneys that R. W. Simonds and J. Rolf Seales had formed a partnership under the firm name of Simonds & Seales. Mr. Seales has moved to Mr. Simonds' office on Railroad street, the partnership arrangement taking effect Dec. 1. Both young men have built up a splendid business by hard work and the new firm is certainly deserving of success.

A number of state cases are set for trial at this term of court, the most important being that of the State Board of Health against the village trustees and about 50 alleged patrons of the Passumpsic river water. Attorney General Fitts will conduct the trial, assisted by the state's attorney, while the village will be represented by its attorney and individuals by their attorneys.

There are four cases of burglary against Arsene and Napoleon Laliberte. It is expected that something will be done with the case against Walter P. Carr, who broke into the store of R. A. Renfrew on May 30th, 1907, and took from the safe $80 and who was sent to Waterbury by Judge Miles last June for observation.

James O'Connell and Mrs. Peter Blouin have lived together at Hardwick for the past summer, and people supposed that they were married. Their case was investigated and it was found that they were not married. Chief of Police Powers arrested Mrs. Blouin on Nov. 14th, and on the 16th she was taken to Rutland to stay one year. Mrs. Blouin was arrested for selling intoxicating liquor. O'Connell is in jail charged with the crime of adultery with Mrs. Blouin. O'Connell has a wife and children in Massachusetts.

William J. Gabree of Hardwick is also in jail, having neglected his family, and being charged with furnishing intoxicating liquor. Mr. Hill's partner, Mr. May, is looking after the state cases this week, as Mr. Hill left Monday for Bennington to attend the December term of the Bennington county court. The case of the Drew Daniels Granite Company is set for trial by jury there on December 4. Judge Haselton will preside. This suit is against R. W. Weld of Chicago and C. F. Huling of Bennington, trustee. It is brought to recover the contract price of the Huling-Carter vault recently erected at Bennington. This case is of some importance to the granite dealers in Vermont, as it involves the question of delays in the shipment of the stone used.

N. E. O. P. Anniversary.

The twentieth anniversary of the organization of the New England Order of Protection will be fittingly observed by Green Mountain Lodge, at Odd Fellows Hall, Thursday evening. All members of the order are invited and each member can bring one guest. The address of welcome will be given by G. H. Taplin, followed by music by the Ladies Orchestra. Dr. W. H. Weeks of East Hardwick, Grand Warden, follows with an address and the other visiting grand officers will be called on. After music by the Glee Club, Supreme Secretary D. M. Frye of Cambridge, Mass., will speak. Another selection from the orchestra will be followed by readings by Miss Marion Ellis, Supreme Warden Peabody of Melrose, Mass., will be the last speaker and after music by the orchestra and Glee Club, light refreshments will be served.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

There is probably no feature of the enlarged and remodelled Association building, which will give greater satisfaction than the dormitory rooms, now in course of construction, and which will be ready for occupation early in January. There will be 10 single and four double rooms, making accommodation in all for 18 men. The rooms will be neatly and comfortably furnished with steam heating, electric lighting, and all modern bath room arrangements on each floor. The rent for the single rooms will be $1.50 to $2.00 per week, and for the double rooms, $3.00, a moderate price considering the privileges afforded. Applications for rooms should be sent to the general secretary this month.

Ideal Minstrels.

De Rue Bros. minstrels, are to be at the Stanley Opera House for one night only, and that is tonight. Among their special features are good monologue work, a big song and dance act, special vaudeville features, including a wire cyclist, and good singing. They carry special scenery for every act, and "A Scene in Italy" is so natural that audiences think they are really looking at a bit of sunny Italy. The brass band plays two high-class concerts, and there will be a street parade at noon.
